

TERMS OF USE
FOR BASIC RA7ALL, BASIC RA7H+P AND BASIC RA7F+L
FORMS PROVIDED BY THE NIDUS RESOURCE CENTRE

The Nidus Resource Centre is a non-profit, charitable organization. The Resource Centre uses a self-help/mutual help and public legal education approach to making a Representation Agreement. Information, tips and forms provided by the Resource Centre are based on the legislation and practices in the province of British Columbia.

- You, and anyone you give the Basic RA7ALL, RA7H+P or RA7F+L form to, must request written permission from the Nidus Resource Centre (info@nidus.ca) to alter the form or to use wording from it. The form is for personal use and only for the adult listed at #2 on the form.
- When using a Representation Agreement form provided by Nidus, you accept responsibility for:
 - Making sure the capability requirements and authorities apply to the adult listed at #2. You will find links to details about this in the two-page Intro & FAQ document available with the RA7 form.
 - Reading the Intro & FAQ document for the RA7 form.
 - Following instructions provided on the RA7 form.
 - Entering correct and complete information in the fields as labelled on the RA form and on the accompanying Certificates.
- The Nidus Resource Centre provides relevant Certificates with its Basic Representation Agreement forms that contain authorities from section 7 of the Representation Agreement Act.
 - The Certificates are required, with original signatures. Certificates are from the Representation Agreement Regulation and are provided with the forms for accessibility purposes.
 - The Representation Agreement is not in effect unless all required Certificates are completed.
